The core curriculum of this upcoming 144th Refresher Course for the Joint District & Sessions Judges working in the Artha Rin Adalat has been designed in the following four modules as per training evaluation guideline. The outcome of this training objective will be assessed and evaluated in each module on the marks shown against them in the table below.

| Module No. | Name of the Module | Marks for the Module: |
|------------|--------------------------------------|-----------------------|
| 1 | Assignment Writing | 100 |
| 2 | Oral Presentation (in Groups) | 50 |
| 3 | Discipline, Punctuality & Attendance | 25 |
| 4 | Computer Literacy & E-communication | 25 |
| | Total | 200 |

A. Evaluation of Module- 1: Each participant is required to submit the assignment on “Speedy and proper disposal of cases under Artha Rin Adalat Ain, 2003: Challenges and way out”. In the assignment, you have to discuss the specific causes of procrastination/ delayed disposal & practical means to remove the barrier of dispensing timely justice. It will be appreciated, if you emphasize on any particular strategy, technique or implementation mechanism that you follow and maintain in managing the case load. The assignment has to be sent to our email address at trainingwing.jati@gmail.com by 20 February, 2022. It is preferable that you prepare the assignment in English; however, you may also prepare it in Bangla and send us in PDF. The participant will be assessed based on his or her writing skill and analytical ability to articulate the argument, identify the challenges, prospects and solutions to the problems concerning the subject matter/ topic of the assignment.

- B. Evaluation of Module-2: The participant will be divided into group and will be assigned a case problem based on the Supreme Court's decision. Each Group is required to resolve the problem through online group study for discussing the case and related issues. Time limit for presenting the case problem for each group is 25 minutes only. Participants are assessed on the basis of the content as well as their mode and manner of deliberations.
- C. Evaluation of Module-3: Virtual attendance in every session and event of the training is a must for each participant. Participant is required to attend the sessions and events timely and maintain highest level of punctuality and discipline. Participants are evaluated in this module through timely attendance in the sessions, dress, etiquette and manner and overall coordination and assistance in maintaining rules of the training program.
- D. Evaluation of Module-4: The Institute offers preliminary knowledge and basic skill on composing, printing, power point presentation, e-mail communication and internet surfing. For the evaluation of this module, participants are asked to answer short questions on basic computer knowledge, also ask to compose a paragraph or an operative part of a judgment or a power point slide in English/Bangla.
