Message from the Director General

The Judicial Administration Training Institute is the sole training institute in the country that provides intensive training to the judicial officers of the Subordinate Judiciary along with other relevant stakeholders. The Foundation Training Course is one of the key training programmes offered by the Institute. This training course has been designed for the newly appointed Assistant Judges and Judicial Magistrates to help them acquire basic understanding and skills required for discharging their duties efficiently. Assistant Judges and Judicial Magistrates play vital roles in the Judiciary and act as the Courts of First Instance in civil and criminal jurisdiction respectively. Thus, the newly appointed judicial officers need to be well-acquainted with the general and special substantive and procedural laws, judicial pronouncements in leading cases. Additionally, they need to be informed about the judicial skills required for court administration and case management, judicial ethics, code of conduct, and other related matters necessary for performing their duties and responsibilities diligently.

The usual duration of the Foundation Training Course is four months. It is an extremely important course because until and unless a judicial officer has received the foundation training, his/her employment cannot be confirmed. Therefore, participating in the Foundation Training Course is mandatory. However, due to the ongoing global and national pandemic caused by the deadly COVID-19 virus, we had to postpone all in-person training programmes in compliance with the government mandate to control the spread of the COVID-19 virus. As a result, a vacuum was created and the Foundation Training of a large number of newly appointed judicial officers was pending at that moment. To deal with that massive backlog, it was decided to reduce the duration of the Foundation Training Course to provide training to the concerned judicial officers and complete their courses within a shorter span of time. The Ministry of Law, Justice and Parliamentary Affairs in consultation with the Supreme Court of Bangladesh approved the duration of the Special Foundation Training Course (SFTC) to be two months instead of the usual four months temporarily and under special consideration. Hence, the duration of the preceding SFTC's were two months. The Institute successfully completed the training within that period and thus combated the massive backlog. Since, official functions has returned to normalcy, the Institute with the 48th Foundation Training Course, is going to reinstate its usual course duration of four months.

Given the duties and responsibilities of the judicial officers in the changing circumstances, this 48th FTC has been specially designed with a focus on both the academic and practical applications of the main branches of law. This training will offer the participants with an opportunity to learn from the vast knowledge and experience of the highly valued resource persons including former and present Chief Justices of Bangladesh and the Hon'ble Judges of the Supreme Court of Bangladesh. The trainee judicial officers will be able to learn about the interpretation of the Constitution and administrative guidelines. It will also enable the trainees to know elaborately about the glorious history of the Liberation War of Bangladesh. Contemporary topics such as human rights, juvenile justice, refugee crisis and many more will be covered as well. Comprehensive lessons on Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) mechanism will also be provided during this course. As technology advances and work place strategies evolve, there comes a need for Sessions on Medico-Legal Report and DNA Technology and Information & Communication Technologies, different aspects of Good Governance and e-Judiciary.

As the Director General of the Judicial Administration Training Institute, I warmly welcome the participants of the 48th Foundation Training Course. It is my firm belief that the newly appointed Assistant Judges and Judicial Magistrates will be immensely benefited from this course and I hope the participants will fully dedicate themselves in learning during the continuation of the training programme. I expect nothing short of excellence from the participants and I believe their conduct and commitment to the training course will be a reflection of their prestigious position. As we have not fully overcome the COVID-19 pandemic situation yet, I encourage the participants to follow the government mandated COVID-19 safety guidelines in order to reduce the risk caused by this infectious virus. I wish the participants of the 48th Foundation Training Course the very best and I hope they will have a beneficial and satisfying experience during this programme.

Justice Nazmun Ara Sultana

Director General

Judicial Administration Training Institute

Message from the Course Director

It is my great pleasure to welcome the Assistant Judges and Judicial Magistrates as participants of the 48th Foundation Training Course to be held at the Judicial Administration Training Institute (JATI). This Institute was established in 1996 as a statutory organization with the objective to provide an all-encompassing training to the judicial officers of the Subordinate Judiciary, court-support staff and government lawyers which would enhance their judicial knowledge and skill. The Foundation Training Course (FTC) for the newly appointed Assistant Judges and Judicial Magistrates is one of the finest training courses offered by JATI. As successful completion of the FTC is mandatory for every judicial officer, JATI always aims to provide a comprehensive training to the participants. Generally, the duration of the FTC is four months but due to the global and national crisis caused by the COVID-19 virus pandemic, under special circumstances the duration of the FTC was condensed into two months and it was named as 'Special Foundation Training Course'. With the 48th Foundation training course, we will be resuming the usual course duration of four months.

Upholding rule of law and ensuring justice for mass population was one of the crucial aspects of our liberation war. Our Father of the Nation Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman believed in a country where equality, justice and fairness would prevail. Judicial knowledge and skills are essential to safeguard the rights and to maintain rule of law. There is no alternative to systematic training programmes to increase legal knowledge and skills of the judicial officers. JATI aspires to provide methodical training to the newly appointed judicial officers and help them become efficient, competent and resourceful while discharging their duties. The course curriculum of the FTC will concentrate on all the core laws and legislations necessary for judicial officers. It will also include sessions on gender and law, alternative dispute resolution, legal aid, cybercrimes and many more evolving subject matters. Furthermore, this course will provide practical problem-oriented sessions based on up-to-date case laws and training on hearing and disposal of the civil and criminal cases. There will be sessions on language and communication skills as well.

Review sessions will be held to peruse and assess the judgments of the participants aiming at their precise judgment writing skills.

Due to the ongoing pandemic, we are having to adapt to a new normal and restricted lifestyle as a measure to limit the spread of the deadly COVID-19 virus. We are keen to adopt and implement the health and safety protocol provided by the experts. Therefore, I urge the participants to strictly follow the health and safety measures in order to control the spreading of the deadly COVID-19 virus.

As the Course Director of the 48th Foundation Training Course, I expect maximum efforts from the participants to learn from this course to the best of their abilities. I believe this is going to be an extremely valuable training course for the participants and will be fetching healthy dividends of the knowledge and experience securing a long-term impact on their judicial performance fit for the future. I once again welcome all the participant of the 48th Foundation Training Course and wish them the very best.

Prelude

The key spirit of the liberation war of 1971 was nationalism, democracy, equality, human dignity and social justice. The visionaries behind our liberation war dreamt that independent Bangladesh would be free of oppression in the economic, political, social and cultural sectors and justice would prevail through a strong judicial system. This vision was reflected in the Constitution of Bangladesh which has a mandate for an independent judiciary. In order to uphold justice under the rule of law and to discharge the duties efficiently, methodical training for the judges, prosecutors, court support staffs and other relevant professionals is fundamental. From this understanding, to garner momentum into enrichment of judicial performance, as a statutory organization, Judicial Administration Training Institute (henceforth referred as JATI) was established in 1996. JATI believes that legal knowledge is essential for ensuring justice and providing relief to the litigants. Presently, JATI is the only organization of its kind that provides legal training to the relevant professionals within the justice system of the country. In its 24 years of operation, JATI has played a crucial role into shaping up the legal minds within the judicial system of Bangladesh by providing training to the Judges of the Subordinate Judiciary and other stakeholders. The 48th Foundation Training Course (henceforth referred as FTC) is a four month long intensive training programme. The participants are entry level judicial officers. They are required to carry out the important task of providing fair, efficient and judicious delivery of justice in the root level. They form the bedrock of our justice system by extending direct and first hand judicial service at the door steps of the justice seekers. Moreover, they need to develop legal, judicial and administrative skills to mitigate backlog of cases and other constraints arising from inadequate resources. JATI sincerely desires that the participants of the FTC will realize the importance of their legal knowledge and aptitude for the betterment of the judicial system of the country. The Institute further hopes that the participants of this FTC will utilize their time in the best possible manner to create positive impact and tangible effect of the training throughout their performance at the Institute and at their respective work station. This Course brochure aims at providing basic outline of the 48th Foundation Training Course and its spirit of cultivating and embracing creativity, innovation and integration.

48th Foundation Training Course (FTC)

According to the Training Evaluation Guideline of the Judicial Administration Training Institute, Foundation Training Course refers to the basic training course held for the newly appointed Assistant Judges and equivalent Judicial Officers. FTC is the first base training for the newly appointed judges who receive training on court procedures and management, and it is a mandatory course for every newly appointed judges of the subordinate judiciary. Generally, the duration of the FTC is four months. However, due to the global and national pandemic caused by the COVID-19 virus, the in-persons training programmes at JATI had to remain postponed in compliance with the government guidelines to control the spreading and risk caused by this virus. Such postponement led to a major backlog and at the moment FTC of a large number of judicial officers is pending. In order to manage this backlog, JATI decided to reduce the length of the FTC to two months. Subsequently, the Ministry of Law, Justice and Parliamentary Affairs in consultation with the Supreme Court of Bangladesh reduced the duration of the FTC to two months temporarily in view of memo no. 10.00.0000.125.25.003.17.184, Dated: 04.04.2021. As a result, the duration of that SFTC was two months. With the 48th Foundation training course, JATI is going to resume its usual course duration of four months. The contents and methods of this course are so designed that the participants can augment their knowledge on court administration and case management, judicial conduct and ethics, various theories, concepts and issues on proper and speedy disposal of cases, familiarise themselves with the rules, regulations, processes, procedures relevant to the justice system. Along with imparting judicial knowledge, this course aims at building a fair and judicious mind and creating leadership qualities amongst the trainee Judges. The course also provides an opportunity to the judges to learn more about the history and heritage of Bangladesh, together with various dimensions of socio-economic and legal development of the country.

Course Objectives

The fundamental objective of the Foundation Training Course is to increase efficiency and sharpen ethical standard of the judges of the subordinate judiciary by providing the newly appointed Judicial Officers training on substantive and procedural laws and on techniques of court administration and case management. The course also aims to equip the trainee judges with relevant knowledge and skills to mitigate the cost of litigation and reduce case backlog.

Course Curriculum

As the FTC is designed for the newly appointed judges of the subordinate judiciary, the Course curriculum includes all the main branches of laws i.e., Civil Laws, Criminal Laws, Family and Personal Laws, Law of Evidence, Law of Limitation, Constitutional Laws, Administrative and Labour Laws etc. In addition to that, emerging as well as cross-cutting issues such as human rights, women's rights, gender justice, ADR, legal aid, cybercrime and techniques of writing judgement, case management and court administration will also be addressed during the course. Participants will also be given on-site training on DNA profiling & other forensic investigation mechanisms, prison management and administration, law making process of the parliament and internal administration of the Supreme Court and Ministry of Law, Justice & Parliamentary affairs. The curriculum encompasses a module on English Proficiency and Communicative Skills for complementing the command of the participants over English Language. Moreover, in congruence with the government mandate of developing E-Judiciary in Bangladesh, elementary lessons on Internet and Communication Technology will also be provided during the course.

Module Based Evaluation Method

For successful completion of the course the participants are required to fulfil the following conditions:

- Maintaining discipline, ethics, norms and formalities inside and outside the classroom;
- Attending all instructional sessions and other training activities punctually;
- Entering the classrooms at least five minutes before the scheduled time;
- Completing assignments within time;
- Staying mandatorily in the dormitory of the Institute;
- Maintaining stringent discipline, the rules and instructions of the Institute and code of conduct for the dormitory, cafeteria etc;
- Participating in all co-curricular activities such as physical exercise, debate, extempore speech etc;

Success or failure in complying the above terms and conditions will be reflected in the final evaluation by the Course Management Team.

The evaluation sheets of the trainee judges will be sent to the Law and Justice Division, Ministry of Law, Justice & Parliamentary Affairs and the Supreme Court of Bangladesh for preserving in the dossiers of the respective trainees.

Discipline

Strict conformity with the rules of the Institute is a prerequisite for successful completion of the course. Any violation of any rules, activities subversive to the discipline or code of conduct, adopting unfair means in the examinations or unauthorized absence in any event by any participant will render him/her liable to disciplinary action. JATI has no other alternative than to release a participant from the training in case of any misconduct. The Course Management Team is authorized to visit the dormitory at any time and inspect the presence of the participants. All participants must wear name badges in all occasions except during physical exercise, yoga and sports activities.

Dress Code

All participants must wear formal dresses in all training sessions and formal occasions.

Formal and Classroom Sessions:

- Male participants shall wear neck tie, full-sleeved shirts with black suit and formal shoes. Wearing suits during mess nights, guest nights and at official dinner is advisable.
- Female participants shall wear sari/salwar-kameez with a black coat.

Sports and PT/Yoga Session:

- Male participants shall wear white track suits, white T-shirts (with collar), trousers and sports shoes.
- Female participants shall wear white salwar-kameez, orna and white sports shoes.

Table Manners

Judges have to attend banquettes with guests from home and abroad in different stages of their tenure. Besides, depending on the positions they are holding, they have to arrange and attend formal dinners on various occasions. Thus, to acquaint the participants with table manners and etiquettes, several formal dinners are arranged. Participants are encouraged to eat with fork and knife following proper table manner and etiquette.

Facilities at JATI

The Institute has a dormitory for the residential accommodation of the trainees with AC facilities. The FTC is residential. Therefore, the participants must stay in the rooms allocated to them at the JATI dormitory. During their stay in the dormitory, participants must maintain decent clothing. Leaving the dormitory and staying outside without permission will be treated as indiscipline. The dormitory gate will be closed at 10.00 pm. Hence, it is advised that all participants must enter dormitory building before 10 pm. Smoking is strictly prohibited inside the JATI Complex. Gambling, playing cards, taking drugs and alcohol are strictly prohibited in the dormitory or inside the complex. Participants are not allowed to take any guest in the dormitory. They cannot keep any arms and sharp materials with them during their stay in the dormitory. In case of any deviation, disciplinary action will be taken against the concerned trainee. Depending on the severity of the deviation, participants may get released from the training and the concerned authorities will be informed with recommendation for disciplinary actions if necessary.

Classroom

Usually the classes are held in the classrooms located in 3rd and 4th floors.

Indoor Games

The Institute has a spacious indoor game room located at the 1st floor where the trainee judges are encouraged to take part in different indoor games including Table Tennis, Carom, and Chess etc. Although, Badminton and volleyball may be played in the ground floor of the Institution. During the duration of the FTC, JATI will arrange competition of the aforementioned indoor games where every participant will have to take part. Besides, participants need to take part in Yoga and Physical Exercise Session arranged by JATI.

Library

JATI has a library on the 4th floor of the Institute Building. The total number of Books, Gazettes and Periodicals already exceeds twenty five thousands (25,000) which makes the Institute one of the most resourceful legal institutions. JATI Library is frequently visited by the legal researchers. Every year JATI purchases newly published law Books, Gazettes, Periodicals etc. considering the growing demand and necessity of its target groups. The trainee judges can use the library for training purposes and research work during 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. The Institute has taken initiatives to develop the automation process of the library and therefore, the work of building an e-library is in progress.

Muktijudhdho Corner

Muktijudhdho Corner is located at the 4th Floor (Room No 509) of the Institute. The Corner is an integral part of the Institute for enlightening the participants about the history of our glorious liberation war and to uphold the spirit of the Father of the Nation Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman. We have around 1057 books in the Corner, with a diversified subject matter such as the historical background of the liberation war, the struggle of Bangladesh and most importantly the glorious life of the Father of the Nation Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman. Participants cannot issue books from the Muktijuddha Corner but can utilize the corner from 8:00 am to 8:00 pm during the week days.

E-Corner

The Institute has an E-corner that provides computer, internet and printing facilities to all the participants. It is located in the 2nd floor (room no. 313). The E-corner will remain open and accessible up to 8:00 p.m. during the training period and the participants will be able to avail all the necessary internet browsing, computer composing and printing facilities from there.

BDLex

To assist the trainees more effectively, JATI offers the privilege of accessing to BDLex anywhere within the compound using any device connected to the Internet Protocol (IP) of the Institute. BDLex is a comprehensive database and research tool for legal professionals in Bangladesh enabling faster and better legal research, offering not only domestic case law and legislation, but also a vast number of International (India and Pakistan) repository. The database provides a depth and breadth to any legal research that is simply not achievable with physical libraries. A digital resource such as BDLex is an ideal solution which takes no shelf space to store.

Wi-Fi

The premise of JATI is covered by a high speed Wi-Fi network which can be used by the participants for their educational and training purpose. However, it is strictly forbidden to use Wi-Fi in the smart phones during the training sessions and at the class room.

Other Facilities Available at JATI
