The Journal of Judicial Administration Training Institute (JATI Journal) is an annual publication of the Institute that aims at facilitating legal and judicial education through enhancing scope of mutual learning and sharing. The Journal accepts original scholarly works on any law-related issues from the judges, law practitioners, academics, researchers and other professionals. The works can be in the form of articles, case notes, book reviews and responses to scholarly legal works already published.

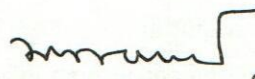

The Journal has been regularly published since 2002. In that process the Institute has taken the initiative to publish JATI Journal Volume XXIV, 2025.

We humbly request for your valuable contribution on the cross-cutting issues of law, justice, fairness, equity, human rights and democracy. Though we do not have a specific theme for the next upcoming JATI Journal Volume XXIV, critical, informative and directional works based on the existing legal and judicial tribulations in the context of Bangladesh are highly encouraged.

The deadline for submission of the articles is extended on 28 February 2025.

We also request you to circulate this notification in your Court/Office/Institute/Organization for its wider transmission among your colleagues, peers and stakeholders.
