Subject: Soliciting Articles for Journal of Judicial Administration Training Institute (JATI Journal), Volume XXV, 2026, a peer-reviewed journal.

The Journal of Judicial Administration Training Institute (JATI Journal) is an annual publication of the Institute that aims at facilitating legal and judicial education through enhancing scope of mutual learning and sharing. The Journal accepts original scholarly works on any law-related issues from among the judges, law practitioners, academics, researchers and all other cross-sectional professionals. The works can be in the form of articles or essays which are innovative, original and research based.

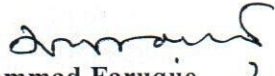

The Journal has been published on regular basis since 2002 and created a legacy of enriched learning and sharing by its erstwhile publications of 24 (twenty-four) volumes. Since 2024, the journal has been published as peer-reviewed journal following standard rules. In this continued effort, we announce that the Institute, within the realm of its research activities, has taken the initiative to publish JATI Journal Volume XXV, 2026.

We welcome your submissions on various cross-cutting issues of law, justice, fairness, equity, human rights and democracy for enriching the research value of the concerned areas/s from both theoretical and practical standing. Though we do not have a specific theme for Volume XXV, critical, informative and directional works based on the existing legal and judicial tribulations in the context of Bangladesh are highly encouraged.

The deadline for submission of the articles on 31st December 2025.

We also request you to circulate this notification in your Court/Office/Institute/Organization for its wider transmission among your colleagues, peers and stakeholders.

Being directed,

Mohammad Faruque 29/09/2025
Director (Research & Publication)
(District Judge)
Judicial Administration Training Institute (JATI)
